Sweet Taste of Italy: An American Success Story

Are you crazy about Italian food and want to learn from a master chef? The Calabasas Senior Center is planning a day trip to Carrara's Restaurant in Moorpark on December 12th for a fun-filled cooking demonstration. The three-course lunch, including gnocchi, a hearty soup, and a Tiramisu-style dessert will be prepared by Damiano Carrara, the chef/owner of the restaurant.

Growing up in the Tuscan hillside town of Lucca, Italy, Damiano Carrara spent most of his childhood standing next to his brother Massimiliano, cooking family recipes. Damiano recalls "the smell of vanilla, fresh oranges and lemon curd emanating from the family kitchen. It was the sweet treats that were the most memorable."

The brothers brought their talents to America in 2009 and opened Carrara's Restaurant in Moorpark and Carrara Pastries in Agoura Hills. "Our passion is creating a quality product using the freshest and finest ingredients so every customer has the experience of walking into a true pasticceria and feeling as though they are a part of our family," says Damiano.

You may register for the class online or in person at the Calabasas Senior Center. The name of the class is "Sweet Taste of Italy", the Code is (8013.401), and the price is $82.00 for members or Calabasas residents and $100 for non-residents.

Let's talk Turkey!

A tradition is born: TV dinners have Thanksgiving to thank. In 1953, someone at Swanson misjudged the number of frozen turkeys it would sell that Thanksgiving -- by 26 TONS! Some industrious soul came up with a brilliant plan: Why not slice up the meat and repackage with some trimmings on the side? Thus, the first TV dinner was born!
