Protecting Yourself and Your Data on the Computer

The Internet offers so many opportunities to explore, create and collaborate. And to make the most of the web, it's important to keep yourself safe and secure. Unfortunately, seniors are the number target of scammers and people that want to take advantage of you, and it can cost you hundreds of dollars to undo the damage these people have caused to your computer!!

Whether you're a new Internet user or an expert, this presentation will offer you advice and tools that will help you navigate the web safely and securely.

Welcome to the Calabasas Senior Center Newsletter!

Looking back....

On Saturday, June 25th, an inspiring ribbon-cutting ceremony and building dedication for the Calabasas Senior Center took place as part of the City of Calabasas' 25th Anniversary weekend celebration.

Exactly one year from the groundbreaking ceremony the previous summer, Mayor Bozajian, City Council, City staff, and the Senior Center Task Force launched the two-story, 9500 square foot, Gold Leed certified building. Many volunteers were on hand to give tours of the new facility to 500 people in attendance.

The Calabasas Senior Center is the hub for Savvy Senior classes, lectures, seminars, and special events. State-of-the art classrooms, lounges, art room, demonstration kitchen, and a sports room provide a meeting place for men and women to engage with other seniors.

Since opening day, hundreds of senior men and women have signed up to become members of the CSC. The total membership now stands at 446. On August 12th, more than 150 seniors enjoyed our "Ice Cream Social", the first event in the Center. Members enjoyed sampling the various ice cream flavors, signing up for some of the 30 special interest groups and clubs, greeting old friends, and meeting new neighbors.

On August 21st, members and non-members alike enjoyed our "Blue Hawaiian Luau". Raymond Michael, long recognized as one of the best Elvis tribute acts, entertained with his upbeat performance of Elvis and Rock & Roll favorites. A delicious Luau buffet dinner, tropical floral centerpieces, and Hawaiian table decorations added to the island atmosphere.

Looking forward...

Classes and excursions begin mid-September. When the Calabasas Recreation Brochure arrived in August, we were pleased to see the Calabasas Senior Center featured on the cover. Looking inside, seniors were able to choose from a variety of 80 classes and more than a dozen day trips.

When you visit the CSC for classes, cards or games, please take a look at the "Special Interest Groups" binder in the entry lobby. There are more than 30 clubs, run by CSC members, and open to all residents and non-residents to join. Special interest groups range from walking, to theater, choral singing, Mexican Train dominos, Canasta, Mah Jongg and many more.

Going forward, many special events will be planned for members as well as everyone in the community, to ensure that the Calabasas Senior Center continues to be a place where seniors feel welcome and gather together for fun and enrichment.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

PEOPLE RARELY SUCCEED UNLESS THEY HAVE FUN IN WHAT THEY'RE DOING! by Janey Rifkin

Welcome to the golden years...They weren't in my pockets. Suddenly I realized I must have left them in the car. Frantically, I headed for the parking lot. My husband has scolded me many times for leaving my keys in the car's ignition. He's afraid that the car could be stolen. As I looked around the parking lot, I realized he was right. The parking lot was empty. I immediately called the police. I gave them my location, confessed that I had left my keys in the car, and that it had been stolen. Then I made the most difficult call of all, to my husband: "I left my keys in the car and it's been stolen." There was a moment of silence. I thought the call had been disconnected, but then I heard his voice. "Are you kidding me?" he barked, "I dropped you off!" Now it was my turn to be silent. Embarrassed, I said, "Well, come and get me." He retorted, "I will, as soon as I convince this cop that I didn't steal your car!"
